

Trauma Responsive and Resilience Informed Care Training

NYS Office of Mental Health and NYS Trauma-Informed Network have developed a curriculum to serve as a foundational training, available across the state, to improve shared knowledge and understanding to increase trauma-responsive, anti-oppressive practice change. It is divided into six training modules, and we will cover one module per session for a total of six sessions.

The Modules

- Introduction to Trauma and Toxic Stress
- Trauma, the Mind and Body
- Wellness, Resilience and Healing
- Trauma-Informed Approaches
- Compassion Resilience
- Adopting the Practice
